

Schweibenalp is a powerful place and one of the most beautiful retreat centres in Europe: An ancient Celtic druid site, above the world on 1100 m heights, overlooking the majestic mountain-chain and the turquoise Lake of Brienz, it simply feels rapturous to be there. Walking to the nearby waterfalls and meditating at the ritual fireplace supports the process. In the summer we can also swim in the lake and practice Continuum in the surrounding nature. International airports are Zürich or Basel. More information at: www.schweibenalp.ch

Volker Moritz (born 1971, South Africa) is psychologist / sexologist and Continuum Teacher and Practitioner. He lived and worked the last 25 years in his own practice in Amsterdam (Netherlands) and now at the healing centrum Schweibenalp (Switzerland), combining therapy with Continuum and the deep healing bodywork of the Maoris from New Zealand. Volker gives international workshops and is known for his deep, sensitive and natural way of teaching. www.volkermoritz.com

Megan Bathory-Peeler (born 1974, USA) is a passionate somanaut. For 25 years, Megan has been exploring the frontiers of embodiment and human relationships - insatiably curious about what it means to live fully in a human body and within the human experience. Megan brings a deep level of integrity, creativity, compassion, and intelligence to her Continuum teaching and Somanautiko practice. Based in Massachusetts, she guides her students and clients to make their own innovative discoveries, drawing on her skills as a Continuum Teacher, Board Certified Somatic Therapist/Educator, choreographer, performance artist, activist, and mother. www.somanautiko.com

Megan and Volker are both Continuum Teachers and Continuum Practitioners, mentored by Emilie Conrad, founder of Continuum. They both completed the Continuum Practitioners Program in 2010. They were taught and mentored by Emilie Conrad and Robert Litman.

It's an honor and a necessity to bring Continuum in the health field!
